Flag Hoisting

Saraswati Vandana

The college principal, Dr. (Mrs.) Snehal Donde, shared her views on the importance of sports as well as the requirement of a firm base for a career in order to excel in life. She also persuaded students to maintain a balance of both in their life. Mrs. Vandana Gudve, also, spoke few words on the occasion regarding sportsmanship. The main highlight for the day was the 'Start up India Campaign'* for which the Coordinator Mr. Karan, took the opportunity to address all the audience and explain the meaning, importance and characteristics of business start-ups. He told students that even a small idea has a capacity to revolutionize modern-day concepts. Therefore, it is better to focus on relevant ideology rather than irrelevant ones. After, a short speech, by Karan Sir, the felicitation ceremony began, in which, Mrs. Vandana Gudve, Karan Sir and Mr. Jha were felicitated by Chairman of Governing Council, Mr. Deepak Shah and Committee Member, Mr. Ratilal Sumariya. After the felicitation ceremony, the Oath of fair play and sportsmanship was undertaken by each and every individual under the guidance of Mr. Jayvikram Singh - Captain of the host Kabaddi team.

Oath Taking Ceremony

Finally, the inauguration ceremony ended with the inauguration of the ground by the honorable chief guest. All the dignitaries and invitees headed for the hand-shakes with the referees and the players who were ready to start their game. The toss for each match was done by the committee members. There were three kabaddi grounds for the tournament. The matches began immediately after the end of the inauguration ceremony at 11:00 a.m.

Inauguration

The accommodation, registration services, First-Aid services, Food and refreshment services and other miscellaneous services were efficiently provided by the volunteers and the students of the host college. There was tough competition among the teams. All were thriving for the ultimate title. The matches for the first day ended by 5.30p.m. The remaining matches were played on the next day from 8: 00 a.m. onwards. The last match of semifinal was played at 2:00 p.m. Two teams were declared finalists. They were ST Gansole college, Vartak College, FG Naik College and GP Patil College. It was decided that the finals will be conducted in MD College Parel.. The tournament ended successfully.

Students Playing Kabaddi

Outcome:

1. The participants learned to compete with sportsmanship and fair-play
2. Each player showed skills on the ground by not only motivating, but also inspiring each other in due course.
3. Efficient organization and management by the hosts resulted in successful completion of the event.

Feedback:

The students of participating colleges were impressed by the infrastructure of the college. They appreciated the hard work and the efforts put in by the entire college in order to organize the tournament. They were happy to be in a friendly environment where they were guided and lead in an appropriate manner. Many students showed gratitude for the services provided by the host college. They were eager to learn more about the history and the current situation of the college.
